

LONDON ART FAIR

THE STORY

The 29th London Art Fair, the UK's premier Fair for Modern British and contemporary art, returns to the Business Design Centre, Islington, from 18-22 January 2017 with an exclusive preview on 17 January 2017. The Fair is renowned for providing a supportive environment for collectors of all levels, enhanced by an engaging programme of curated exhibitions, talks, tours, films and performances.

London Art Fair 2017 sees 129 galleries present museum quality Modern British art alongside the very best international modern and contemporary art. Over one fifth (22%) of this year's exhibitors come from outside of the UK, with galleries from 18 different countries including China, France, Germany, South Korea and USA.

Among the new features and highlights for 2017 are: A museum partnership celebrating the 10th anniversary of The Lightbox, galleries including Christopher Kingzett Fine Art, Katharine House Gallery, Beaux Arts London and Peter Harrington Gallery, International contemporary galleries making their London Art Fair debut such as Pi Artworks (Istanbul/London), Art Projects 'Dialogues', curated by Miguel Amado, a showcase of artistic collaborations formed via the internet, Photo50: 'Gravitas', Contemporary Korean artist Jaye Moon's LEGO street art sculptures and discussions regarding topics such as 'Modern British art and the Idea of Europe'.

RSVP

LONDON ART FAIR 2017 - VIP PREVIEW

- Tuesday 17 January 2017 VIP Preview, 3.00-6:00pm
- For you and a +1
- To invite a guest, please use the 'Invite Guest' function above